Sec. Gen. — to P.S. Lokanathan (UN. Economic

22 March 1956

Since my return to Headquarters, I have wanted to write and thank you very sincerely for all that you did to assist me during my recent visits to Bangalore and Bangkok.

I would be most grateful if you would also convey to your staff my appreciation of the services rendered by them to assist me at both places. Thanks to your advance planning, arrangements went very smoothly in Bangkok and I would like you to thank Mr. Wu for the valuable help he gave in this direction.

It was also a very great pleasure for me to meet your wife and family at your lovely home and I am most grateful to Mrs. Lokanathan and yourself for such a delightful evening. My colleagues and I, on a number of occasions, recalled the unique U. N. table decorations that had been so cleverly arranged.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dag Hammarskjold
