March 16

Sec. Gen. — to Sudjarwo Tjondronegoro (Perm. Repr. of Indonesia to the U.N.)

16 March 1956

On my return to United Nations Headquarters from my visit to the Middle East and South East Asia, may I ask you to convey to the Indonesian Government my sincere thanks for the warm welcome given to my colleagues and myself during my stay in the Republic of Indonesia and for the courtesies so generously extended. I very much appreciated the opportunity which my visit afforded me to discuss with the Indonesian Government the various problems facing the United Nations today.

I wish to add that I have sent a personal letter of thanks to Mr. Harahep.

Yours sincerely,

Dag Hammarskjöld

Dr. Sudjarwo Tjondronegoro
