The Secretary-General has asked me to write and thank you very warmly for the personal attention you gave him during the New Zealand trip. If I may say so, I was deeply impressed by the efficiency and courtesy with which you made all arrangements.

Speaking for the party as a whole, I would like to add that we genuinely appreciated our meeting with you and look forward with relish to re-telling our stories when we meet you again, here or there. It was quite a delightful visit in every way and you did a great deal to make it so.

Yours sincerely,

George Ivan Smith
