Dear Mr Hammarstedt

You may have had copies of these through regular departmental lines but more likely than not they are now gathering dust in a musty pigeon hole somewhere in Wellington.

If you have not seen these prints I would be delighted if you would accept them as a reminder of what is by now probably

on a fond memory

A. Rapkin.

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr. Milne,

It was very kind of you to send me your excellent pictures from our two excursions. My own did not come out at all so well, so I am very happy to have yours.

May I take this opportunity to thank you most warmly for very pleasant company. I keep the Tongariro stay, in spite of somewhat unfriendly weather, as one of my best memories from the world trip. I would be happy indeed if I got an opportunity to return and to explore the possibilities much more closely than is possible in poor 24 hours.

I wish you all good luck in your job as the one who introduces eager but, I guess, sometimes somewhat bewildered guests to all that Tongariro can offer.

Kind regards,

Mr. G.R.Milne
