Message from Sec. Gen. - to Thomas J. Watson, Sr. (N. York)

(via A. W. Cordier)

23 April 1956

My dear Mr. Watson,

The Secretary-General has asked me to transmit his reply to your much appreciated message of last week. The reply follows:

"Warmly appreciate your kind words. The good co-operation given by governments concerned is the full explanation of what has been achieved and augurs well for the future. Dag Hammarskjold."

It is mankind's good fortune to have available at this time a man of Mr. Hammarskjold's stature to engage personally in this very important task in the Middle East when the issues of war and peace have been hanging in the balance.

With kindest personal regards, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

Andrew W. Cordier,
Executive Assistant to the Secretary-General
