

Trips: Trips - 46

HS L 179:70

Dag Hammarskjöld's saml.

D. H. trips 1956 May 3

Hide-Memoire (Conf. General Armistice Agreements, Art. II, § 2)

Jerusalem, 3 May 1956

A I D E - M E M O I R E

Informed by the Secretary-General that he has now received from the Governments of Jordan, Lebanon and Syria their unconditional acceptance of paragraph 2, Article II of the General Armistice Agreements concluded with Israel, with a reserve for the right of self-defense, and that, thus, he has received unconditional cease-fire assurances, the Government of Israel reiterates its agreement unconditionally to comply fully with the provisions of the said Article and paragraph in the General Armistice Agreements. This assurance is given on the basis of reciprocity and with reserve for the right of self-defense. The Government of Israel has noted the interpretation given by the Secretary-General to the phrase "self-defense" in his reply of 10 April 1956 to the Israeli assurance to comply with Article II, paragraph 2 of the Israel-Egypt Armistice Agreement.

****/ ***

They have further noted his statement that, when used in a declaration to the United Nations by a Member Government, the expression "self-defense", by him must be interpreted as meaning "self-defense" as stipulated in the Charter of the United Nations.

RADIO-BOND
MADE IN AUSTRIA

RADIO-BOND
MADE IN AUSTRIA

Jerusalem, 3 May 1956

A I D E - M E M O I R E

Informed by the Secretary-General that he has now received from the Governments of Jordan, Lebanon and Syria their unconditional acceptance of paragraph 2, Article II of the General Armistice Agreements concluded with Israel, with a reserve for the right of self-defense, and that, thus, he has received unconditional cease-fire assurances, the Government of Israel reiterates its agreement unconditionally to comply fully with the provisions of the said Article and paragraph in the General Armistice Agreements. This assurance is given on the basis of reciprocity and with reserve for the right of self-defense. The Government of Israel has noted the interpretation given by the Secretary-General to the phrase "self-defense" in his reply of 10 April 1956 to the Israeli assurance to comply with Article II, paragraph 2 of the Israel-Egypt Armistice Agreement.

.... / ...

They have further noted his statement that, when used in a declaration to the United Nations by a Member Government, the expression "self-defense" by him must be interpreted as meaning "self-defense" as stipulated in the Charter of the United Nations.

Jerusalem, 3 May 1956

A I D E - M E M O I R E

Informed by the Secretary-General that he has now received from the Governments of Jordan, Lebanon and Syria their unconditional acceptance of paragraph 2, Article II of the General Armistice Agreements concluded with Israel, with a reserve for the right of self-defense, and that, thus, he has received unconditional cease-fire assurances, the Government of Israel reiterates its agreement unconditionally to comply fully with the provisions of the said Article and paragraph in the General Armistice Agreements. This assurance is given on the basis of reciprocity and with reserve for the right of self-defense. The Government of Israel has noted the interpretation given by the Secretary-General to the phrase "self-defense" in his reply of 10 April 1956 to the Israeli assurance to comply with Article II, paragraph 2 of the Israel-Egypt Armistice Agreement.

.... / ...

They have further noted his statement that, when used in a declaration to the United Nations by a Member Government, the expression "self-defense" by him must be interpreted as meaning "self-defense" as stipulated in the Charter of the United Nations.