Dear Mr. Hammarskjöld:

I am extremely sorry for your unexpected departure to Stockholm, due to the unexpected approach of your flight on July 26th.

Your departure at all is very much appreciated, and I hope your trip was otherwise to some extent most successful.

We will be glad to extend our services to you when again, and under most favorable circumstances.

Sincerely,

John A. Collings

Dear Mr. Hammarskjold:

I am sincerely sorry for your unexpected stopover at Stephenville, due to the unscheduled operation of your flight on July 26th.

Your selection of TWA is very much appreciated, and I hope your trip was otherwise in line with your expectations.

We will be glad to extend our services to you soon again, and under more comfortable circumstances.

Sincerely,

John A. Collings
Executive Vice President

Dear Mr. Collings,

I thank you for your letter of 7 August which I very much appreciated receiving.

I had a pleasant flight over from Paris on the 26th, and the unexpected stopover at Stephenville did not detract too much from it.

Yours sincerely,

Dag Hammarskjold
