Your Excellency,

On my return to the United Nations Headquarters in New York, I have the honour to convey to you my sincere thanks for the kind reception given me during my first official visit to Yugoslavia and for the courtesies and hospitality so generously extended to me and my colleagues by the Yugoslav authorities.

I was particularly happy to have had the opportunity to become personally acquainted with you and to discuss the various problems which confront Yugoslavia and the United Nations today.

Accept, your Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
