Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

With reference to recent conversations I have the honour and pleasure under instruction from the Danish Government to inform you that they would be happy to receive your visit in Copenhagen on October 15, following your visit to Oslo. They would be grateful to be informed at your earliest convenience if the date mentioned will suit you and also how long your stay in Copenhagen may be expected to be.

Yours most sincerely,

Dear Mr. Eskelund,

I wish to thank you very much for your letter of 12 September inviting me to visit Denmark on 15 October of this year.

May I express to you and to the Danish Government my sincere gratitude for this kind invitation.

As you know, I had hoped to be able to come to Denmark on the date suggested. It is therefore with particular regret that I am obliged to tell you that owing to circumstances with which you are familiar, my official duties will prevent my leaving New York for some time to come.

It is difficult for me to say now when I will be able to visit Denmark, but as soon as I am in a position to do so, I shall let you know.

Dag Hammarskjöld

His Excellency
Mr. Karl I. Eskelund
