History of the Republic of the Philippines

CHAPTER I THE PRE-HISPANIC PERIOD

The history of the Philippines begins with the arrival of the first human beings on the islands. The exact date of their arrival is unknown, but it is believed to have occurred between 30,000 and 40,000 years ago.

CHAPTER II THE HISPANIC PERIOD

The Spanish period in the Philippines began with the arrival of Ferdinand Magellan in 1521. He claimed the islands for Spain and named them the "Islands of the East."

The Spanish period was marked by the establishment of a colonial government and the introduction of Christianity to the islands.

The Spanish period ended with the Philippine Revolution of 1896-1898, which led to the establishment of the First Philippine Republic.

The First Philippine Republic was the first sovereign state in the Philippines, established on June 12, 1898.
